

Welcome to Family Reading

An Intergenerational Approach to Literacy

Presented by:

Robert Pinhero

PO Box 684031

Austin, TX 78768

Voice: 512-541-1720

Fax: 636-216-1052

robert@robertpinhero.com

Training Goals

- ◆ To encourage children, family and community members to read for pleasure.
- ◆ To encourage intergenerational reading.
- ◆ To provide participants with opportunities to engage in and communicate about reading.
- ◆ To promote library usage.

Training Goals

- ◆ To illustrate how to document the impact of a family based reading program.
- ◆ To provide opportunities to thematically explore reading and reading related PACT activities.
- ◆ To increase reading skills among children, family and community members.

Literacy Development

- ◆ Integrates reading, writing, speaking, and listening
- ◆ Empowers parents to take an educational role and help develop their children's reading abilities
- ◆ Introduces learners to several types of children's literature and reading strategies

Presentation Outline

- ▶ Welcome and Introduction
- ▶ Overview of the program
- ▶ Interactive reading activity
- ▶ Overview of program materials and components
- ▶ View a brief excerpt from the training video
- ▶ Interactive reading activity
- ▶ Questions and Discussion

Introduce the:

- genre
- the adult reading selection and the children's book
- the reading strategy

Strategy practice: Adult reading selection

- modeling - Adult reading selection
- read

Follow-up activities:

- writing
- discussion

Strategy practice: children's literature

- modeling – children's literature
- paired reading

Follow-up activities:

- writing
- discussion

The Process

Topics / genres include

- ◆ the power of stories
- ◆ wordless picture books
- ◆ concept books
- ◆ family stories
- ◆ folktales
- ◆ fables
- ◆ poetry
- ◆ science
- ◆ people and society

Family Reading Strategies

- asking questions
- creating stories from pictures
- observing and developing vocabulary
- connecting reading to personal experience
- making predictions
- rereading
- learning new information