

Closing the gap between the "REAL" and the "IDEAL"™

Robert M. Pinhero

Education and Training Consultant ... Social Entrepreneur

PO Box 684031
Austin, Texas 78768-4031
email: Robert@robertpinhero.com

Voice: 512-541-1720
Fax: 636-216-1052
<http://www.robertpinhero.com>

Robert M. Pinhero - Curriculum Vitae

- Sole Proprietor of an education and training consultancy, contracting with Independent School Districts, Businesses, Nonprofit Organizations, Universities, and Community Colleges
- President of South Central Literacy Action, a six-state consortium of literacy programs
- Board member of the Texas Association of Nonprofit Organizations
- Instructor in a Nonprofit Leadership and Management certificate program
- Conference speaker and presenter
- Served as Vice- Chair of the Governance Council, for ProLiteracy, a national literacy organization
- Served as an adjunct consultant for the Texas Family Literacy Center at the University of Texas
- Past Board President of Texas Adult Literacy Laubach, a statewide non-profit literacy organization
- Served as a publicity campaign task force member for the National Institute for Literacy
- Trained and approved, to design and administer CASAS (Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System) programs, one of the first assessment and testing programs to be accepted by the Department of Labor
- Literacy Trainer, for Basic Adult Literacy, English as a Second Language, and Family Literacy
- Trained and approved as a test administrator for the BEST PLUS ESL assessment
- Experience as a college instructor in accounting, and financial management courses
- Experience as a community college instructor in accounting, business, and computer applications
- Experience as an adult education instructor for GED and ESL classes
- Past Executive Director of a Literacy program
- Past President of a Literacy Council Board of Directors
- Past President of Friends of a Friends of the Library Association
- Served as a city representative to the Central Texas Library System